

Highlands-Cashiers Land Trust Property: Dixon Woods Park

Dixon Woods is one of the flattest hikes in Highlands, with an easy access parking area. This is a pleasant walk around a small pond and through oak forests. Enjoy a picnic at the picnic table, or on one of the benches overlooking the water. The network of trails total about 1.7 miles, with variable lengths.

Directions to Dixon Woods:

From Highlands, NC:

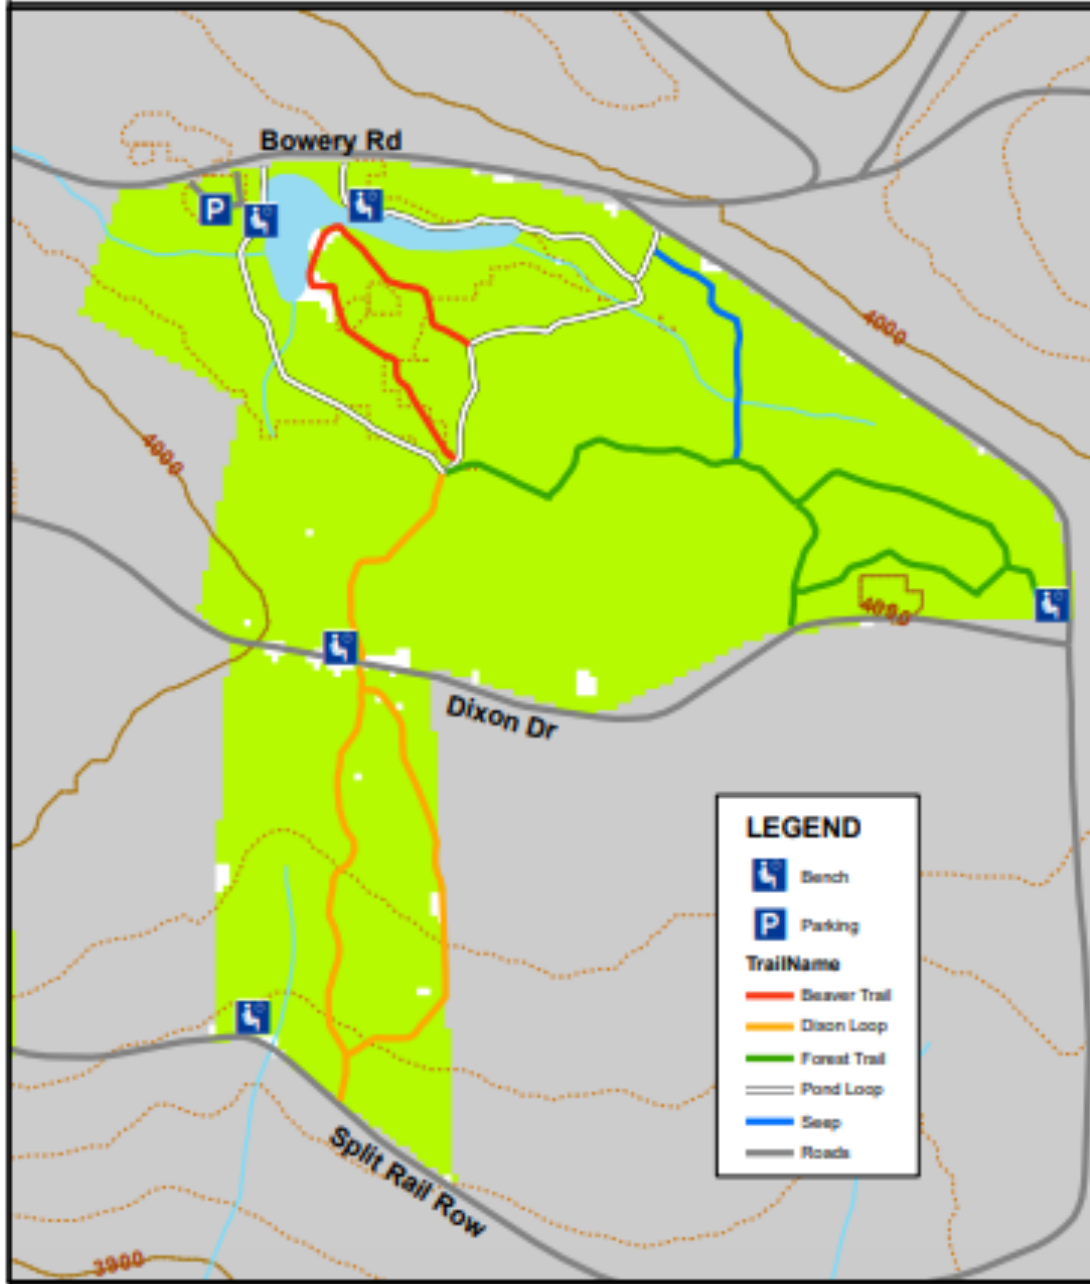

From downtown Highlands, NC follow Main Street towards Mountain Fresh Grocery. Continue straight on Horse Cove Road. (Pass the Highlands Biological Station and Ravenel Park). After about 0.8 miles, take a sharp left turn onto Bowery Road. Go about 1.3 miles on Bowery Road, and there is a designated gravel parking lot on the right. If you see Split Rail Row Road, you've gone too far. (About 2 miles total).

From Cashiers, NC:

Head towards Highlands, NC on US64 West for about 9.8 miles. Continue straight onto South 4th Street, and turn left onto Main Street. See above directions from Highlands, NC. (About 12.4 miles total).

Dixon Woods

Note:

- There is a network of trails, all blazed with a different color (White, Blue, Green, Orange, and Red). Only the White, Green, and Orange trails have loops. The Blue and Red trails connect to other trails.
- The Orange Trail crosses over two roads: Dixon Drive and Split Rail Row Road.
